Social Emotional Learning: How Parents and Educators Can Help Children Work Toward Social Success

Featured Speakers

Dr. Clark McKown

Child psychologist and research director for social-emotional learning at Rush Neurobehavioral Center

Dr. Jenny Wojcik

Superintendent of Rondout School District 72, Illinois grant winner for social emotional learning program, and executive board member of Illinois Collaborative for Academic and Social Emotional Learning (CASEL)

What?

Parents and educators will better understand social-emotional learning (SEL) and the challenges children may experience in the school setting.

Parents will leave with resources to strengthen their child's ability to handle such challenges.

Educators will learn how to provide a safe environment for students, in order to maximize social learning.

A panel of local school psychologists and social workers will also be available for the question and answer session following the presentation.
